

Dr. Hemant J. Thakkar

National Diploma of Acupuncture (New Zealand - 2003)

Recognized Lecturer of SUJOK Academy (Moscow 1997-1998)

Diploma Acupuncture (Malaysia - 1995)

L.C.E.H (Homeopathy, India -1985)

Dr. Hemant is in medical practice since 1985, treated patients with Homoeopathy and Allopathy for initial 10 years of practice.

Handled the charitable Acupuncture clinic for 4 years, which was jointly managed by the “K. J. Somaiya Trust” and “SUJOK Academy Moscow”.

Presently treating patients only by Traditional Acupuncture and Sujok Acupuncture since 1994 (about 24 years).

Dr. Hemant taught in formal 3 years full time course in New Zealand, and also Managed the Auckland campus, of the “New Zealand School of Acupuncture & TCM”, as an Administrator.

Utilizing the knowledge and experience Dr. Hemant has been teaching Acupuncture informally in India and abroad.

Also conducting Acupuncture treatment camps, in India and abroad.

Dr. Hemant has been giving lectures for creating awareness about acupuncture for more than 23 years, on National and International level.

Dr. Hemant has played active role in the process of recognition of Acupuncture in Maharashtra, he was the member of the committee of “The Maharashtra Acupuncture System of Therapy Bill – 2015, to help reach the benefits of Acupuncture to the interior parts of Maharashtra to help poor patients of this drugless, harmless, minimal cost therapy.

In addition has done Certificate course of Ozone Therapy in 2012.

He is a member of various associations, working for the development of Acupuncture including AASP (Association of Acupuncture Science Practitioners).

Clinics:

Matru Chhaya building, 29, R.R.T road, Mulund, (West), Mumbai - 400080.

89, Gitanjali building, off Tilak road, Ghatkopar, (East), Mumbai - 400077.

Contact: + 91- 9892516565

Email: hemanthakkar54@gmail.com